Nominations are now being accepted for the Steve Whalen Memorial Policing Award. The annual award recognizes a Dayton Police Department officer demonstrating extraordinary commitment and service to the community.

Officer Steve Whalen was killed in the line of duty in March 1991. He was known as a community-oriented public servant who made himself accessible to the public above and beyond his normal police duties.

Nominations may be submitted at daytonohio.gov/whalenaward and must be submitted by 5 p.m. on April 16.

The Steve Whalen Memorial Policing Award will be presented at the Dayton Police Awards ceremony on May 10, at 1 p.m., at the Salvation Army Ray and Joan Kroc Center, 1000 N. Keowee St. The community is welcome to attend.
