The Dayton Police Department is proud to welcome 13 new officers this week. The members of the 107th Dayton police recruit class will be sworn-in by Deputy City Manager Joseph Parlette on Friday, March 23, at 10:30 a.m. in the City Commission Chambers (101 W. Third St., second floor).

The 107th recruit class will also take part in a formal graduation ceremony that evening at 6 p.m. at Smith Auditorium, on the campus of Sinclair Community College (301 W. Fourth St., Bldg. 12, Rm. 150). The keynote speaker for the event is Kenneth Parker, Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of Ohio.

The 13 class members completed a rigorous six months of training at the Dayton Police Academy. Upon graduation, the new officers will be assigned to a field training officer for 16 weeks before beginning patrol duties on their own.

The community is invited to attend both the swearing-in and the graduation ceremonies.
