

Investigation Into Roxbury Road Fatal Shooting Continues

Release Date: Wednesday, March 16, 2016

Contact: Cara Zinski-Neace, Police Information Specialist, 937-333-1201

Dayton Police Department homicide detectives are investigating the shooting death of a 17-year-old male.

Officers responded to a shots fired call in the area of West Second Street and Elmhurst Avenue on the evening of Tuesday, March 15, at around 8:40 p.m. Officers located evidence of a shooting nearby, in the 300 block of Roxbury Road. A short time later, the 17-year-old victim arrived at Good Samaritan Hospital by private conveyance. He succumbed to his injuries at the hospital.

During the course of their investigation, homicide detectives have determined that a large fight occurred at Residence Park, and as the crowd began running from the area, shots were fired toward the victim, striking him.

Detectives are continuing to follow up on leads, including conducting interviews. There have been no arrests.

Anyone with information on the shooting is asked to call 333-COPS (2677) or Crime Stoppers 222-STOP (7867).
