

Small Business Forum looks to 2019 opportunities

Release Date: Wednesday, Oct. 24, 2018

Contact: Erica Fields, Human Relations Council, 937-333-1407

The Dayton Human Relations Council will host a Small Business Opportunity Forum on Thursday, Nov. 1, to highlight upcoming construction projects by the City of Dayton, the City of Kettering, Montgomery County, Greater Dayton Premier Management, and many other project managers.

The event takes place at the Dayton Metro Library Northwest Branch (2410 Philadelphia Dr.) from 10:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Participating businesses will:

- + Meet and speak with project engineers and developers;
- + Network with prime contractors and vendors seeking small business subcontractors; and
- + Learn about upcoming construction projects and procurement opportunities.

Small business owners will also have an opportunity to learn how to become certified with the City of Dayton as a small, minority, women-owned, or Section 3 business. The event is being held in partnership with the Dayton Minority Business Assistance Center.

Registration is available at <https://daytonsof.eventbrite.com> or by contacting Lezlee Gerren at 937-333-1403. Lunch will be provided, and admission is free.

Established in 1962 by the Dayton City Commission, the Dayton Human Relations Council works to influence and ensure a culture of fair treatment, inclusion, and equal access to opportunities for all who live, work, play, and gather in the city of Dayton. The Council provides civil rights enforcement; builds the capacity of minority-owned, woman-owned and small disadvantaged businesses; and administers community relations initiatives.
