

Experienced, Certified Business Advisor Joins Dayton MBAC

Release Date: Tuesday, May 7, 2019

Contact: Toni Bankston, Public Affairs 333-3616

---

The Dayton Human Relations Council is pleased to announce that Adrienne Heard has joined the staff of the Greater Dayton Minority Business Assistance Center. Ms. Heard is a Certified Business Advisor and has extensive experience as a business consultant and advisor in the Dayton area. She will work with the Center's administrative assistant and construction specialist, bringing the Center to full staff.

"Providing important services to our residents and others within the Miami Valley region is a core tenant of our mission," said Erica Fields, Executive Director of the Human Relations Council. "We remain committed to our work, mission, and dedication to our programs, clients, and customers."

The Ohio Development Services Agency oversees the state's network of Minority Business Assistance Centers and has been working with the Human Relations Council as the council has been focused on resuming full operations.

"The Human Relations Council has been a good partner, and it's exciting to have such a strong professional added to the Dayton team," said Jeffrey L. Johnson, Chief of the Minority Business Development Division at the Development Services Agency. "We stand ready to continue to assist customers of the Dayton Minority Business Assistance Center."

Business seeking MBAC services are urged to call (937) 333-1033 or visit our website.

