

Lifeguard certification training begins March 19

-Free training for those committing to City employment-

Release date: Wednesday, Feb. 26, 2020

Contact: Dana Prazynski, Recreation and Youth Services, 937-3393

City of Dayton lifeguard certification training kicks off on March 19, with free training available to participants committing to City employment.

Trainings are held over six days, with coursework and certification provided by the American Red Cross. Participants may register for sessions in March, April, May, Aug., Sept., Oct. or Nov., all held at the Northwest Recreation Center, 1600 Princeton Dr.

Applicants must successfully complete a skills test in advance of registration. There is a $200 fee for participants not committing to City of Dayton employment.

For more information, go to daytonohio.gov/lifeguards2020 or contact Dana Prazynski at 937-333-3393.

###

FOLLOW US

Visit the City of Dayton newsroom