

Dayton Civil Service Board to meet Sept. 24

Release date: Monday, Sept. 21, 2020

Contact: Ken Thomas, Secretary and Chief Examiner, 937-333-2300

The Dayton Civil Service Board will hold its regular meeting on Thursday, Sept. 24, beginning at 9 a.m. The meeting will not be open to the public, but will be conducted remotely and available to watch live at daytonohio.gov/govtv.

This meeting is being held in accordance with changes to both state and local laws regarding public meetings during a state of emergency. In response to COVID-19 and in the interest of public health and welfare, Governor DeWine signed an emergency declaration on March 9, 2020, and the City of Dayton followed with an emergency proclamation on March 12, 2020. On March 25, 2020, the Ohio legislature passed Amended Sub House Bill 197, which in Section 12(B) allows for public meetings and hearings to be conducted by electronic means.

Citizens interested in making public comments related to calendar items of a remote Civil Service Board meeting are asked to do so in writing. Items related to a calendar item will be included in the meeting minutes.

Comments may be sent to Sheila.Crum@daytonohio.gov. Comments received by 5 p.m. on the Tuesday before the scheduled meeting will be included in Communications for that week. Comments received after that time will be included in the next meeting.

Citizens who wish to make the Board aware of an issue not related to the agenda may also do so. These items will be distributed to the Board for reference.

Submitted comments must follow meeting guidelines and must not contain threatening statements or vulgar language. Any improper comment may result in the comment being determined as out of order. Additionally, comments should not be longer than three pages in length.

###

FOLLOW US

Visit the City of Dayton newsroom

