Dayton International Airport announces an addition to its departure schedule: American Airlines will begin a new seasonal weekly non-stop flight between Dayton (DAY) and Orlando (MCO) starting Saturday, June 5, 2021, and operating through Labor Day 2021. Tickets will be available for purchase beginning April 19.

"We are thrilled to offer new non-stop service between Dayton and Orlando in time for summer, giving local travelers the opportunity to experience the wonder of Orlando and its endless outdoor adventures," said Brian Znotins, American Airlines vice president of network planning. "We look forward to welcoming more Dayton travelers to fly with us and further connecting them to our global network."

"We are excited that American Airlines is responding to the increased leisure demand and decided to bring additional service to Dayton. Our passengers and community will benefit from the convenience of this new non-stop to Orlando and just in time to enjoy a fresh breath of summer," said City of Dayton Director of Aviation Gil Turner.

The weekly schedule starting Saturday, June 5, 2021 will be:

Depart DAY: 2 PM
Arrive MCO: 4:24 PM

Depart MCO: 11 AM
Arrive DAY: 1:15 PM

"It has been encouraging to see passenger confidence in Dayton International and our airline partners continue to grow since the beginning of the pandemic. In partnership with the airlines, we have implemented aggressive measures to keep our passengers and employees safe while at the airport and throughout their travels," said Turner.
