The Dayton Police Department is now taking applications for the fall 2021 Citizens Academy class.

Participants in the 12-week program are part of a unique, hands-on, interactive experience and will learn about what police officers do in their day-to-day work. The program will cover:

- Specialized units including crime scene investigation, detectives and K-9;
- Active shooter and personal safety training;
- Conflict resolution;
- Handling firearms.

The fall program begins August 26, 2021, with classes held on Thursdays from 6 to 8 p.m.

To apply go to: daytonohio.gov/citizensacademy. The application period closes Aug. 16 at 5 p.m.

Citizens Academy rosters are limited to 20-25 people and participants must pass a basic background check.
