

Neighborhood Leadership Institute returns, apply by April 11

Release date: Friday, April 1, 2022

Contact: Verletta Jackson, Manager, Division of Community Engagement, 937-333-3288, verletta.jackson@daytonohio.gov

Applications are now being accepted for the 37th Neighborhood Leadership Institute, presented by the City of Dayton.

The Neighborhood Leadership Institute is a 13-week program designed to educate Dayton residents about local government, City of Dayton resources and community leadership.

The 2022 program is scheduled to kick off on Tuesday, May 3. It is comprised of workshops, skill-building components and a day-long bus tour of Dayton neighborhoods. Participants hear presentations from community, business and government leaders on topics such as Dayton's history, the role of city government, the criminal justice system, and cultural diversity. Class members also complete field assignments and a practicum requiring development of a grassroots project within their community.

Anyone interested in participating must complete and apply no later than Monday, April 11. Applications are available at www.daytonohio.gov/nli and from the Department of Planning, Neighborhoods and Development, 101 W. Third St., sixth floor. For more information call 937-333-3288.

###

FOLLOW US

Visit the City of Dayton newsroom