The 2016 Downtown Summer Music Series concludes as the Dayton Reggae Festival returns to Dave Hall Plaza (Fourth at Jefferson) on Sunday, September 4, with a musical line-up that will keep fans jammin' from 1 p.m. until the sun goes down behind the Dayton skyline.

Five reggae acts will take the stage, followed by an all-star jam scheduled for 6 p.m. WYSO's Niki Dakota will emcee.

Admission is free; food, beverages and merchandise will be sold. Bring blankets or chairs, but please leave food/drink, tents, coolers and pets at home.

The line-up:

- 1 p.m.: Jonny Dread (Yellow Springs)
- 2 p.m.: Johnny Payne and the True Believers (Detroit)
- 3 p.m.: One Love Reggae Band (Detroit)
- 4 p.m.: Demolition Squad (Dayton)
- 5 p.m.: Seefari (Wilberforce)
- 6 p.m.: All-Star Reggae Jam (featuring Scales of Justice reunion).
