'Lights in Flight,' the region's most spectacular Independence Day fireworks display, returns to downtown Dayton's RiverScape MetroPark on Monday, July 3, with a festival featuring music, food and family fun including a kids' zone. Admission is free; the event is presented by Dayton's Department of Recreation and Youth Services.

The festival begins at 5 p.m., and fireworks sponsored by Marion's Pizza will light the sky over downtown Dayton at 10 p.m. Hot 102.9 will broadcast a fireworks-synchronized music soundtrack.

The festival's entertainment lineup:

- 5 p.m. DJ SKNO (variety)
- 6 p.m. Kellen Williams Trio (blues)
- 7 p.m. Erin Coburn (rock)
- 8 p.m. Son Del Caribe (Latin)
- 9 p.m. DFunk Allstars (funk)

Additional support is provided by the Dayton Department of Water, Five Rivers MetroParks and USI.
