

NEGLIGENT TAXPAYER REPORTING FORM

CITY OF DAYTON
Division of Revenue and Taxation

EVERYONE SHOULD PAY THEIR FAIR SHARE

Date

All individuals who live in or are employed by businesses operating in the city of Dayton, Ohio, must pay two and a quarter (2.25%) percent earnings tax each year. All employers in the city of Dayton, Ohio, must withhold two and a quarter (2.25%) percent of employee wages. In an effort to identify businesses or individuals who are not paying their fair share, the City of Dayton Division of Revenue and Taxation requests your assistance. If you know of any business or individual who is not meeting this obligation, please fill out the following information. Remember that your taxes are used for capital improvements and other services needed by all citizens of this city. The City of Dayton Division of Revenue and Taxation is unable to disclose confidential taxpayer information; therefore, we will be unable to provide any information on action taken concerning this taxpayer. Please complete the following form.

Asterisks denote required fields.

Name and address of person or company:*

Name

Address

City

State

Zip Code

Social Security Number or Federal Employer Identification Number of person or company identified:

Why do you think this person or company owes money or taxes to the City of Dayton, Ohio?*

May we contact you for additional information if needed?

Yes

No

What is your name?

What is your phone number?

What is your email address?